- ☐ If you're mad at a nigga who makes >$15 dollars an hour seek psychiatric help
 - ☐ One of the biggest IQ moves you can do is to intentionally sandbag your life so people look pathological trying to disrupt it. For example name one time someone who wasn't sadistic went out of their way to antagonize someone homeless? It's never happened because rational people look out for those less fortunate.
 - ☐ I stopped being religious when I realized no one gives a fuck about practicality and that they are socially motivated to be concerned primarily about optics for social cohesion which is their God not being a person who actions have the most utilitarian value and protects those most vulnerable
 - ☐ Imagine blackballing a nigga that turns the brightness down on his phone at dollar tree
 - ☐ You recognize at a certain point in life not only are you so broke but that others are so bored at times that it truly gives you all of the confidence and apathy needed to be a great person who helps society.
 - ☐ LMFAOOOOOOO you say one bad thing about niggas who committed war crimes and felonies and your life gets paused for 2 years.
 - ☐ I was doing the harassment training at work and recognized a comment I made about a terrible person and the double bind it put me in:
"If I took three women to the same park and all three women came out as lesbian (outside of investigating the park for witchcraft)(Buckner Park) if I don't refer to their pronouns correctly I could look intolerant (cant go for that), but if I leave the elephant in the room, I also look like I am excluding lesbians (not factual and not apart of my CLB track 3 ethos), either way it looks like I am not inclusive for being a witness to someones involuntary disclosure of their identity switch. You just got penalized for being someone they opened up to(aka having good emotional intelligence and then you get labeled homophobic if you say "well the Notre Dame variant SA'd me objectively....." like now Thats a Character PR hit that no one (idk maybe I can) has ever came back from) aka for being a good person."
- ☐ You accidentally don't know a nigga got a security clearance and your life gets fucked up because niggas be 30 and have an award for doing "CAD" (something we do as freshman/sophomores in highschool) projects and all of a sudden your life is fucked for the next 30 years
 - ☐ Never compete with someone doing cartwheels on command it doesn't end well- luh Tyler in his hit song backflippin

- You can't hate on someone who works retail you really can't
- You give up your dream and here comes all the people who made you miserable going "see we told you it wasn't meant for you." Mhhhm hmmm I know a lot of things not meant for people, I just tend not to verbalize those things and or project them
- The quickest way to lose your faith is to see how people defend others in your faith who do bad shit and then calculate the: mental gymnastics(MG)/ the cost accrued to you (TCATY) and then square root yourself out of the entire religious equation😂
- FYM you had a fiancé at 27/28
- Crustaceans, Seafood, Saigon & Salmon, Tilapia, Dairy sucks ☹️
- Some people are emotionally arrested in development at 16 years old just get punished like a real man for their lack of personal development & inability to conceptualize an empathetic model of Theory of Mind and the lack of not only empathy but the lack of internal restraint as well too and then stop complaining about shit.
- LMFAOOOOO you ever realized that those that go the hardest on humbling or obstructing or killing others dreams are truly just miserable people and out of touch
- Someone will literally do everything in their power to stop you from progressing and expect you to reach out and want to go to dinner to catch up
- I don't like being bribed with food it's prostitution with less steps. My silence is worth at least a fucking new apartment in a new city (or the same city I should say) financed by someone who is not me as I've seen from the individuals around me.
- Niggas have no problem potentially taking fentanyl laced drugs, smoking laced drugs, having liver cirrhosis, hanging out with predators, and draw the line at a nigga who wants to leave, to better his life and get an even better education and a career which specifically selects away from those things, and then will tell you to go to church and talk to God about it and then have no answer for why God let another Christian go unpunished, then use your lack of wanting to go to church to compound their punishment even more to gain the moral high ground and then wonder why that person will never have faith or believe in God again. Then they'll use the same biblical verses specifically, targeted and aimed at you in order to force more compliance as if that is going to ever make up for the fact that they weren't even there with the same Bible verses to help you during that time and instead were using the "will a man rob God" angle to diminish you. Meanwhile I threw away my PS5 and my degree, because they were more worried about you paying tithes and offerings than their child getting SA'd by a woman who went to a catholic college, and then lecture you for not coming to church for one Sunday when you were the only child who even cared enough to come and to tithe. And people will look at you like you hate religions (I don't I think they are pure and beautiful obviously when not weaponized and I'll protect others right to them day and night) and are the second coming of the antichrist because you called out bad people lol...."

- ☐ Something retroactively becoming legal doesnt remove the legality of it at the time nor does it remove the fact that you're terrible people
- ☐ If I ever become a cuck stone me..... voraciously
